

Michael T. Guidon is a Private Wealth Advisor in the Seattle office of Goldman, Sachs & Co. Prior to joining Goldman Sachs, Michael was a Senior Accountant at Deloitte & Touche, LLP. Michael earned a BA in Accounting and Finance, magna cum laude, from Western Washington University in 2005. He is a Certified Public Accountant and Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) Charterholder. He currently serves on the board and is a member of the finance committee of The Pipeline Safety Trust. He leads the asset allocation committee and serves on the investment advisory board for the Western Washington University Foundation's Financial Management Scholarship Fund. Michael is a regular member of both the CFA Institute and the CFA Society of Seattle and is a member of the Estate Planning Council of Seattle. Michael, a Bellingham native, was a high school friend of Liam Wood who was killed in the 1999 Olympic Pipeline tragedy. Before the pipeline in Bellingham ruptured, Liam and Michael were to room together as freshmen at Western Washington University.