

Pipeline Safety Indicator & Transparency Forum

Sheraton Suites Eau Claire Hotel, Wildrose North, 255 Barclay Parade SW, Calgary

9:00 AM – 3:30 PM, May 19, 2016

Breakfast Buffet served starting at 8:30AM

Purpose – To use the Pipeline Safety Trust’s proposal on Canadian Pipeline Safety Indicators and Associated Transparency of information as a starting point for discussion of how to move such indicators and associated transparency of information forward in Canada

Agenda

Opening Introductions and Comments – (5 minutes)

Carl Weimer, Executive Director, Pipeline Safety Trust

Why was this project started? - (15 minutes)

Jim Donihee, Chief Operating Officer, Canadian Energy Pipeline Association
Carl Weimer, Executive Director, Pipeline Safety Trust

Discussion of Background, Need, and Research - (15 minutes)

Carl Weimer, Executive Director, Pipeline Safety Trust

Presentation of Desired Indicators and Information Needed to Produce - (45 minutes)

Carl Weimer, Executive Director, Pipeline Safety Trust

Break – 10:20-10:30

Feedback on Proposed Indicators and Transparency - Panel/Panels to discuss thoughts on proposed indicators, needed transparency, and what they may already have in the works (90 minutes)

Industry Panel –

Chris Bloomer, President & CEO, Canadian Energy Pipeline Association
Tim McMillan, President & CEO, Canadian Association of Petroleum Producers

Regulator panel –

Peter Watson, Chair & CEO, National Energy Board
Kirk Bailey, Executive VP, Alberta Energy Regulator
Blaine Keener, Director of Safety Data Systems and Analysis, PHMSA

Citizen Panel –

Duncan Noble, Pipeline Awareness Renfrew County, Ontario
Rick Munroe, National Farmers Union, Ontario
Lynn Perrin, PIPE-UP, BC

Lunch Provided - Noon

Limitations and problems with existing transparency of information - Mixed panel – (45 minutes)

Probable topics: Lack of Information, Multiple agencies/orgs with differing views on Transparency, Mixed messages, Lack of Trust

Doug Macknight, Assistant Deputy Minister, Saskatchewan Petroleum and Natural Gas Division

Cathy Hay, Director, Industry Intelligence & Strategic Initiatives, Canadian Energy Pipeline Association

Carl Weimer, Executive Director, Pipeline Safety Trust

Limitations and problems with existing data collection – Mixed panel – (45 minutes).

Probable topics: Bad Data, Lack of data and reporting harmonization, Multiple agencies/differing scope and authorities

Alan Pentney, Technical Leader, National Energy Board

Patrick Smyth, Vice President, Safety & Engineering, Canadian Energy Pipeline Association

Gaile Whelan Enns, Manitoba Wildlands

Break – 2:30

Next Steps - Discussion of who should provide and update such indicators, and how to proceed -

Mixed panel – (45 minutes) Probable topics: Who do people trust? Who has the time, resources, ability, and willingness? How to Proceed?

Josée Touchette, Chief Operating Officer, National Energy Board

Ken Paulson, Chief Operating Officer, BC Oil & Gas Commission

Jim Donihee, Chief Operating Officer, Canadian Energy Pipeline Association

Carl Weimer, Executive Director, Pipeline Safety Trust